Summary: YuffieVincent poem, Vincent POV. My first ever attempt at YV. Should be put in a pit and left to burn.

In That Way

It's my first poem, be gentle, the pixies of inane writer's block wrote it. Wrote it whilst I was hacking to death a Vincent/Yuffie story, I might add, which would explain the sapfest.

In That Way

> _____

Forevermore I'll close my eyes

> ignore the things I see in hers;
 The playful gleam, the loving fire

> all of the things I so admire.
 I've never let my passions show

> I long to let her know they're there;
 My voice dies when I try to say

> "I love you, Yuffie, in that way."

So foolishly I swallow words - > her eyes grow sadder with each hour;

 I'm far too weak! I'll die a liar

> Cold martyr to my last desire.
 desire that's dead! Can't I let go

> Of someone lost and gone from me?
 Lucrecia's dead and dead she'll stay -

> "I only loved you yesterday."

It hurts me, night after long night

> this ninja's voice, inside my head...
 She whimpers, softly, then she cries;

> with every teardrop, my heart dies.
 Would I hurt her with my love?
> a greater sin would be to lie.
 for good, for ill, just come what may...
> "I love you, Yuffie, in that way."
